

144th Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry.

---

ONE HUNDRED DAYS' SERVICE.

---

THIS Regiment was organized at Camp Chase, O., May 11, 1864, to serve one hundred days. It was composed of the Sixty-fourth Battalion, Ohio National Guard, from Wood County, and the Nineteenth Battalion, Ohio National Guard, from Wyandot County. The Regiment was ordered to report, without delay, to General Wallace, at Baltimore. Upon its arrival in that city Companies G and K were detached for duty in the fortifications, and the remainder of the regiment reported to General Morris, at Fort McHenry, and from there Company E was ordered to Wilmington, Del.; Company B to Camp Parole, near Annapolis; and Company I to Fort Dix, at the Relay House. On the 18th of May the Regiment was relieved from duty at Fort McHenry, and ordered to the Relay House. Companies B, G, and I, were in the engagement at Monocacy Junction, losing in killed, wounded, and prisoners, about fifty men. On the 13th of July the Regiment was ordered to Washington, and from there moved toward Winchester. It halted at Snicker's Gap, and was moved back toward Washington, but it was soon again faced toward the Shenandoah Valley, moving via Harper's Ferry. On the 13th of August a portion of the One Hundred and Forty-fourth, while guarding a train near Berryville, Va., was attacked by Moseby's command with two pieces of artillery. The detachment lost five killed, six wounded, and sixty captured. The Regiment was mustered out Aug. 24 and 31, 1864, on expiration of term of service.
